

- B. This policy applies to any other items deemed by the John Carroll University Police Department (JCUPD) to be dangerous, including hazardous chemical or biological materials of any sort other than materials being used in connection with an authorized academic activity.
- C. This policy also applies to displays/collections of any of the items named above, including but not limited to ammunition, ornamental weapons, and ornamental ammunition.
- D. The following firearms and other weapons are excluded from this policy:
 - 1. A firearm or other weapon in the possession of an on-duty law enforcement officer, duly authorized to carry the firearm or other weapon by their employing law enforcement agency, and acting on behalf of and within the scope of their official duties with such agency while on University property or at a University-related activity.
 - 2. A firearm or other weapon in the possession of a campus Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) member when part of an official ROTC function, when authorized by a professor of Military Science, and after notification to the JCUPD Chief of Police.
 - 3. A tool, not including a firearm, used by a University employee or contractor as an authorized part of their employment with the University.
 - 4. A firearm or other weapon in the possession of an authorized Person who has received prior written authorization from the JCUPD Chief of Police.

- D. Any Person who violates this policy may be subject to criminal enforcement and to preclusion from University property.
- E. As with other University policies, employees and students are responsible for the behavior of any guest they have on campus. Employees and students will be held accountable through the appropriate University policy if their guests violate this policy.
- F. Any questions about weapons or firearms on University property should be directed to the JCUPD Chief of Police (216-397-1234).

VII. CROSS REFERENCES:

Corrective Action Policy

Workplace Violence Policy